How is value assessed?

Choice review and assess the product on at least an annual basis to ensure that it continues to offer fair value to customers.

Choice review all information available including that provided by our distributors.

We have made an assessment of our products, looking at the nature of the product, the pricing, the distribution arrangements, as well as basing the assessment on the following fair value measures:

Assessment	Fair Value measures	Fair Value Outcome
Product Overview	- Product Summary - Target Market to ensure the product meets the needs of the customer - Vulnerable Customers - Product Research	- There is no evidence that the product is not suitable for the customers it is intended for. - The product meets with the customers' needs - We provide support to vulnerable customers
Product Design/Performance	- Market Assessment to ensure the product aligns with comparable products on the market - Product lifecycle ensuring the value remains consistent throughout its lifecycle	The product offered, and any exclusions applicable to the product and any additional products, are appropriate for the customer and meet their requirements
Remuneration	Review of the overall cost of the product, including fees and considering add-ons that form part of the product	- The remuneration that we pay to brokers/distributors is relative to the service they provide to customers and the total cost to the customer - The Renewal prices for customers are the same or lower than the price available for a new customer with the same risk information and cover. - Small fees are charged for new business, renewals and cancellations. The fees charged are reasonable and in line with market practice.
Service	- Review of complaints to ensure the product continues to offer benefit for customers and the outcomes and trends of these - Customer Journey including quality assurance and feedback - Staff Training if required	- We find that this product provides fair value, based on a review of information relating to the services we provide to the customer. - Our remuneration reflects the services we deliver; operational expenses and profit margin are considered carefully to ensure that the products value is not adversely affected. - Our staff act in customers best interests and are not incentivised
